Treasurer means the treasurer of the Association from time to time.

Union means every national rugby union for the time being in full or associate membership of the Association provided that such Union has paid all of its membership fees due to the Association at the material time. For the avoidance of doubt, any Union which has not paid all of its membership fees due to the Association at the material time shall be temporarily suspended from all official business and activities, including without limitation, attendance at and/or hosting of and/or voting at and/or calling of meetings (they may still receive notice of meetings) and participation in and/or hosting of Matches and/or tournaments, of or pertaining to the Association until such time as the Union's membership fee payments to the Association are made. ("World Rugby Member Union" means a Union in full or associate membership of the Board.)

- 1.2 Unless the context otherwise requires in these By-Laws the masculine gender shall include the feminine gender and the singular shall include the plural and vice versa

BY-LAW 2 MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL OF THE ASSOCIATION

- 2.1 The General Meeting has the ultimate and supreme legislative authority in respect of the affairs of the Association which it shall exercise in accordance with these By-Laws. The EXCO is responsible for formulating and overseeing implementation of the Association's strategic plan and application of policy decisions in accordance with the provisions of these By-Laws.
- 2.2 Funds, securities and other property belonging to or at the disposal of the Association may be invested in any property or class of security or securities without any restriction whatsoever and shall be made in the names of nominees or the name of a nominee company as may from time to time be decided by the General Meeting or the EXCO.

The nominees or nominee company (as the case may be) shall have the custody of all securities and documents of title relating to the investments but such investments nevertheless remain at the disposal of the Association acting by the General Meeting or the EXCO (as the case may be). In the specific case of World Rugby Funds the investment and/or use thereof shall be subject always to prior Board approval in writing (as the case may be).

- 2.3 Without limiting the generality of the foregoing the Association acting by the General Meeting (or the EXCO to the extent permitted by these By-Laws) shall have power to hold, purchase or take on lease or licence any real or personal property and shall have power to authorise the sale, exchange, lease, mortgage, charge or other disposition of or dealing with any such property.
- 2.4 The General Meeting or the EXCO (to the extent permitted by these By-Laws) shall have power (subject to written approval of the Board) on behalf of the Association to raise or borrow any sum or sums of money with or without security for any purpose which it considers necessary to further the objects of the Association and to secure the repayment of the same by mortgaging or charging any of the Association's property.
- 2.5 The EXCO may appoint one or more of its members or any nominee company to act in legal proceedings in the name of and on behalf of the Association on such terms (whether as to costs or otherwise) as the General Meeting may determine.

BY-LAW 3 OBJECTIVES AND FUNCTIONS OF THE ASSOCIATION

- 3.1 Promoting, fostering, developing and extending the Game within the jurisdiction of the Association in accordance with these By-Laws.
- 3.2 Monitoring and assisting with the implementation and compliance with the World Rugby By-Laws, the World Rugby Regulations and the Laws of the Game and notifying the World Rugby of any breach of same.
- 3.3 Applying the appropriate disputes resolution procedure with regard to deciding and/or settling in the first instance matters or disputes between Unions relating to the playing of matches under the jurisdiction of the Association or other matters pertaining to the Association. Dispute resolution shall be governed by the Laws of England [save that where disputes arise solely between Francophone Unions then Tunisian Law will apply in the first instance]. Any disputes on the interpretation of this Constitution and By-Laws shall be governed by the Laws of Tunisia as the country of original registration of Rugby Afrique.
- 3.4 To co-ordinate activities subject to the agreement of the Board, resources (outside of High Performance Unions and tournaments directly organised by the Board) and, in accordance with Regulation 16, to ensure a programme of matches, tours and tournaments for National Representative Teams (of all forms of the Game) of all Unions.

- b) Funding towards competitions
- c) Funding, as appropriate, for specific development projects and events.

10.5 The amount of apportionment of financial support, if any, will be confirmed annually by the Board following full consultation with the Association and having regard to the strategic development plan and general intention to support programmes and competitions on a regular basis where resources permit.

BY-LAW 11 ASSOCIATION ADVICE

11.1 The Board will seek advice and information from the Association in considering applications from Unions for grants from the World Rugby Trust.

Rugby Afrique Constitution

- 11.2 The Association will inform itself as to the needs, performance and status of its Member Unions so that it can provide the Board with an informed opinion and assessment for the purposes of the advice to be given to the World Rugby Trust.

BY-LAW 12 REPRESENTATION

- 12.1 The Association shall be represented on the Council by the President of the Association in accordance with the World Rugby By-Laws and these By-Laws, subject to By-Law 8.4.3 and 8.4.4
- 12.2 The Board shall be entitled to be represented and participate at all meetings of the Association.

BY-LAW 13 DISCIPLINE AND MISCONDUCT

- 13.1 The Association shall establish a Judicial and Disciplinary Committee Disciplinary Panel in accordance with the terms of reference set out in Appendix Three to administer and implement Regulations 17, 18 and 20 and any other matters referred to them by the Executive Committee and otherwise to fulfil the functions as set out in Appendix Three.
- 13.2 The Judicial and Disciplinary Committee will be formed by four (4) members including a Chairman, all duly qualified and designated by the Executive Committee of the Association by a majority vote. At least one the committee's member must be a member of the Executive Committee of the Association in accordance with article 8.12.e of this Constitution.
- 13.3 All disciplinary, misconduct and other regulatory cases, including application of sanctions and appeal processes, shall be conducted in accordance with the Regulations under the auspices of the Disciplinary Committee by appointed members of the Disciplinary Panel.

BY-LAW 14 INTERPRETATION

- 14.1 In the event of a doubt arising at any time on a matter not provided for in, or as to the meaning or construction of the By-Laws, the Board's CEO shall be requested to determine the matter in accordance with the Regulations, as applicable.
- 14.2 These By-Laws shall in all respects, other than the disputes resolution in By-Law 3.3, be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Tunisia.
- 14.3 The Association may have appropriate official languages but shall communicate with the Board in accordance with World Rugby By-Law 11(c).

BY-LAW 15 AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

- 15.1 Amendments to the Constitution may be considered at an Annual General Meeting ("AGM") or and Extraordinary General Meeting ("EGM") specifically called for the purpose of amending the Constitution.
- 15.2 Proposals to amend the Constitution must be circulated in writing to all Member Unions of the Association and the Board six weeks in advance of the date of the AGM or EGM.

Rugby Afrique Constitution

- 15.3 An AGM or EGM considering any duly submitted proposals to alter the Constitution may modify, alter and amend such proposals provided that a three quarter majority of the representatives present and entitled to vote at the AGM or EGM has been obtained and such altered or amended proposals shall thereafter be incorporated into the Constitution.
- 15.4 A simple majority of the Ordinary Members present and entitled to vote shall be required for individual alterations to be made to the proposed amendments.
- 15.5 A final vote on the proposed amendments to the Constitution shall require a three quarter majority of the representatives present and entitled to vote.
- 15.6 The three quarter majority shall equate to 75% of the total votes cast inclusive of any abstentions. If a representative fails to cast a vote, this will be considered as an abstention.
- 15.7 The short notice provisions relating to the calling of an Extraordinary General Meeting may not be used in the case of an EGM being called for the purpose of considering an amendment to the Constitution. In such case, six weeks' notice must be provided.

- Please note that no direct World Rugby Development Funding will be provided to World Rugby Associate Members (funding will be supplied to Associations to assist in development of associate members of the Board)

APPENDIX THREE - Terms of Reference for Judicial and Disciplinary Committee and Disciplinary Panel

Judicial and Disciplinary Committee objectives:

- To ensure compliance and consistency within the Association of all of its obligations under:
 - a. Regulation 17 relating to Foul Play; and
 - b. Regulation 18 relating to Disciplinary and Judicial Matters; and
 - c. Regulation 20 relating to Code of Conduct and Misconduct; and
 - d. Any other relevant Regulations and/or regulations or rules of the Association.
- To establish an independent Disciplinary Panel for the Association comprising sufficient numbers of Judicial Officers, Citing Commissioners, Appeal Officers, members of Appeal Committees and members of Disputes and other Regulatory Committees;
- To appoint personnel from that Disciplinary Panel to manage and/or implement Regulations 17, 18 and 20 (and any other matters as relevant) in the capacity of Judicial Officers, Citing Commissioners, Appeal Officers, members of Appeal Committees and members of any other Regulatory Committees, as relevant, at the Association's tournaments and any other events or matters where the Association has, accepts or is granted, jurisdiction (collectively, "Association Events");
- To provide support, guidance and training for the ongoing development of members of the Association's Disciplinary Panel and staff of the Association involved in disciplinary matters;
- To monitor, review and appropriately report to the Association's management regarding the judicial process as it relates to Association Events.

Judicial and Disciplinary Committee membership and governance:

- The Judicial and Disciplinary Committee will comprise up to four persons. The Chairman and members of the Judicial and Disciplinary Committee will be appointed by the Executive Committee by a majority vote and will always include at least one member of the Executive Committee of the Association.
- For the purpose of appointment to the Disciplinary Committee each Union can nominate no more than one suitably-qualified candidate.

Rugby Afrique Constitution

- The Judicial and Disciplinary Committee shall comprise at least one Judicial Officer and one Citing Commissioner.
- The members of the Judicial and Disciplinary Committee, including the Chairman, shall be appointed for a two year-period unless otherwise altered by the Executive Committee.
- Members of the Judicial and Disciplinary Committee may be members of the Disciplinary Panel appointed to act as Judicial Officers, Citing Commissioners, Appeal Officers, Members of Appeals Committees or Members of Dispute Committees for Association Events.

Core functions of the Judicial and Disciplinary Committee:

- Independently of the Association, establish and maintain the Disciplinary Panel.
- Select and confirm all appointments of Judicial Officers, Citing Commissioners, members of Appeal Committees, Appeal Officers and members of Disputes and other Regulatory Committees from the Judicial Panel for Association Events.
- Establish and implement an independent system of merit-based selection incorporating the monitoring and, as appropriate, reviewing of performance of Citing Commissioners, Judicial Officers, Appeal Officers, members of Appeal Committees, Disputes and other Regulatory Committees.
- Work with the Association's management to provide appropriate training and education for Citing Commissioners, Judicial Officers, Appeal Officers, members of Appeal Committees, Disputes and other Regulatory Committees.
- To provide the Association's management with advice on the appropriate use of technology to assist the implementation of Regulations 17, 18 and 20 at Association Events in an appropriate, cost-effective manner where possible.
- To undertake such other actions and functions necessary and/or incidental to the exercise of the core functions and the responsibilities of the Disciplinary Committee.
- As appropriate to liaise with World Rugby and/or the World Rugby's Judicial Panel Chairman in connection with Regulations 17, 18 and 20 together with all other relevant Regulations, issues and/or matters.

Chairman of the Judicial and Disciplinary Committee:

- The Chairman of the Judicial and Disciplinary Committee will be a Judicial Officer and/or Appeal Officer and is responsible for ensuring the integrity and effectiveness of the governance process of the Judicial and Disciplinary Committee.

Rugby Afrique Constitution

- The Chairman will act as a facilitator at meetings of the Judicial and Disciplinary Committee to ensure that no member of the Committee dominates discussion, that appropriate discussion takes place and that relevant opinion among members is forthcoming.
- Judicial and Disciplinary Committee meetings will ordinarily take place via teleconference.
- Meetings shall be convened by the Chairman at least once every three months.
- The Chairman shall have a deliberative and casting vote.

Independence of the Chairman, the Judicial and Disciplinary Committee and the Disciplinary Panel:

- The Chairman, members of the Judicial and Disciplinary Committee and members of the Disciplinary Panel of the Association shall operate and implement his/their functions completely independently of the Association and/or its membership and in such a manner that does not interfere with the exercise of their independent discretion and judgment in relation to the carrying out of their respective responsibilities and/or other functions and/or any other activities or decision making under these Terms of Reference.

Confidentiality:

- Neither the Chairman nor any member of the Judicial and Disciplinary Committee or Disciplinary Panel may make any press or other public announcement which relates to any disciplinary or other matter pertaining to the Association unless the form and substance of such communication has been agreed by the Association's management.

Miscellaneous matters:

- With the exception of the reimbursement of reasonable expenses and specific appointments, neither the Chairman nor any member of the Judicial and Disciplinary Committee or Disciplinary Panel shall receive any remuneration for performing their duties as Chairman or as a member of the Judicial and Disciplinary Committee or Disciplinary Panel.
